Warranty Procedures

Return this form and attached photos to your Dealer of Purchase to start the Warranty Claim process. The Dealer of Purchase will then contact Elite Trailer Manufacturing LLC. and obtain a claim number/authorization AFA (Application for Adjustment) prior to repairs being started. Items manufactured by Elite Trailer Manufacturing LLC. may require the item(s) to be returned to the factory. Warranty Claims for structural repair will require the trailer to be returned and repaired exclusively at the Elite Trailer factory. Transportation charges to and/or from the factory will not be provided or reimbursed by Elite Trailer Manufacturing LLC. Components NOT manufactured by Elite Trailer Manufacturing LLC. are covered only by the warranties extended by the manufacturer of such components, and not by Elite Trailer Manufacturing LLC. Such components may include but are not limited to: tires, wheels, couplers, jacks, hub caps, axles, suspension components, hubs, drums, brakes and all parts associated therewith. Request for warranty adjustments on these items shall be made directly to their manufacturers. Component Vendors require return of the item(s) within 10 days from the issuance of the claim number. (Claims with items returned, exceeding 30 days will automatically be closed without notification.) Please allow approximately two weeks for the evaluation and determination of the claim. All return item(s) must be pre-paid (COD will not be accepted). Replacement items can be requested when filing a claim. However, replacement parts will be invoiced, including freight. Reimbursement for the replacement item will be dependent upon the evaluation and determination of the claim. Warranty work should not begin until Elite Trailer Manufacturing LLC. and/or Component Vendor issues a written approval for parts replacement, repairs and/or labor allowance if applicable.
